The fair "ImmobilienTag" in Hildesheim is a regional event for real estate, house building and financing. This event takes place in many different cities throughout the Lower Saxony and North Rhine-Westphalia and is aimed at those who wish to purchase a real estate or a property or to build a house. Whether property deals, houses of system house companies or of regional property developers or condominiums and homes for singles, couples, families and seniors - the exhibitors have something to offer for all visitors in all price ranges. Furthermore financial experts and service providers but also independent consultant expert provide advice on financing as well as purchasing of homes and flats with tailored financing concepts and solutions. In addition every visitor will receive a broad overview of the local real estate market with its diverse offers and has access to a large number of different properties due to the involvement of local offices for business development and real estate. This fair in Hildesheim takes place in the hotel Novotel. The grade II listed historic building of the Novotel has a small courtyard that invites to relax and unwind. Ideally situated in the heart of the city of Hildesheim the hotel has a public chargeable outdoor parking place. The ImmobilienTag will take place on Sunday, 24. September 2017 in Hildesheim.
