The Big Companies Exhibition is considered a one of the premier points of entry for the consumption market, bringing together all of the necessary components for a thriving economy to support investment opportunities throughout the Kingdom's consumption sector. This is one of the event of the Middle East Exhibition Company to aid achieving Saudi Arabia's Vision 2030 plan of economic expansion and development, positioning the Kingdom to be among the most active countries. The mission of the Big Companies Exhibition is to bring together both segments of the consumption chain (producer & consumer) in one competitive marketplace that will allow the producer to offer his products, their features and achieve the potential profit from sales, while simultaneously facilitating an environment in which consumer needs are met efficiently.
